Day 1, Friday 26 January 2018

- 11:00AM – 12:00PM

Boulders Beach, Simon's Town

Kleintuin Rd, Simon's Town 7995, South Africa

Meet African penguins at Boulders Beach, a series of sandy coves separated by granite rocks. Part of Table Mountain National Park, the beach has had an influx of visitors since 1982, when the colony of penguins was formed. Hanging out on the picturesque beach, you can observe the charming animals at close range or snap a few memorable photos. If you come on a warm day, try swimming alongside the penguins, but resist the urge to reach out and touch them--though not considered dangerous, these animals are wild and could become agitate if you invade their privacy.

- 1:00PM – 4:00PM

Cape of Good Hope

Cape Point Rd, Table Mountain National Park 8001

Take a tour of Cape of Good Hope, a dramatic seaside promontory and part of Table Mountain National Park, known for its scenic landscape and hiking trails. The narrow coastline, discovered in 1488 by Bartholomeu Dias, became famous as the birthplace of the "Flying Dutchman" legend. A bird-watching paradise, the area shelters more than 200 species, including the African penguin, as well as a variety of other creatures like Chacma baboon, fallow deer, whales, and the elusive Cape mountain zebra.

Day 2, Saturday 27 January 2018

- 10:00AM – 10:30AM

AVOOVA

Cnr Shortmarket St, 97 Bree St, Cape Town CBD, Cape Town, 8001

The flagship store of AVOOVA, a luxury brand, sits on the busy Bree Street in the center of Cape Town. Stop by to browse a range of handcrafted decorative items, jewelry, and objects d'art made of ostrich eggshells. The company focuses on socially responsible enterprises and employs local artisans, who transform the eggshells into special articles that combine functionality with visual appeal. While there, you can also look for leather products, photo frames, and other items that make good gifts or souvenirs.

Table Mountain, Table Mountain National Park

Take the cableway to the top of Table Mountain National Park and enjoy the stunning views from the top of a Cape Town landmark. The mountain's most recognizable feature, its long, flat plateau, along with its diverse wildlife, attracts visitors from all over the world. You can also hike one of the numerous mountain trails, the most popular of which is a trek along a centrally located gorge. In addition to the picturesque scenery and panoramic views from the top, the mountain offers a variety of activities, from rock climbing to exploring its sandstone cave systems.

Day 3, Sunday 28 January 2018

- 10:00AM – 10:30AM

Shimansky Jewellers

Clock Tower, Waterfront, South Arm Road | Level 1 The Clock Tower Waterfront

See the sparkle at Shimansky Jewellers, the main store and museum of the designers and manufacturers of fine jewelry. Gain an understanding of the story behind each diamond as you walk through the halls of the museum, where information panels, multimedia presentations, and displayed artifacts detail the formation, mining, and crafting of these precious gems into jewelry, clothes, and ornaments. Stop in the store after your tour to see some of the ready-to-wear designs, or have a chat with the expert staff if you're looking for something personalized.

- 11:00AM – 2:00PM

Clifton Beaches

Victoria Road, Cape Town Central

The playground for wealthy locals, Clifton Beaches include a series of sand strips divided by large granite rocks. Overlooked by Lion's Head Hill, the beaches offer a chance to cool off in the cool water, surf, or participate in a game of beach volleyball. Popular with surfers and families alike, the cliff-fringed sandy shore offers scenic views of the ocean and protection from the infamous winds that prevail in the area.

Day 3, Sunday 28 January 2018 (Continued)

- 2:30PM – 6:00PM

Robben Island

Private Bag, Robben Island, Cape Town Central 7400

Visit the World Heritage Site of Robben Island, a spit of land just off the Cape Town coast. The island's main claim to fame is rather unfortunate--it includes the prison in which Nelson Mandela served much of his sentence. Used for isolating political prisoners since the 17th century, the island also housed as a leper colony and a World War II fortress during its history. Take a boat ride to the island to delve into the history of the anti-apartheid movement and see where numerous activists, three of which later became presidents, served out their prison sentences. On a tour of the maximum-security prison, you'll most likely be guided by a former inmate who can offer a glimpse into the grueling experience many suffered here.

Day 4, Monday 29 January 2018

- 10:00 AM – 12:30PM

Old Biscuit Mill

Old 375 Albert Rd, Woodstock, Cape Town, 7915

Once a biscuit factory, Old Biscuit Mill today draws visitors with its buildings transformed into a rustic village teeming with trendy shops, restaurants, and food stalls. Enjoy the lively atmosphere that permeates the village as you browse the market for delicious snacks and desserts, sample a local wine, or catch a live musical performance. Besides the marketplace, the old mill also houses popular bars and restaurants, along with artisanal shops, specialty stores, and art galleries.

- 1:00PM – 4:30PM

Victoria & Alfred Waterfront

19 Dock Road | Merchant House, Cape Town Central 8002

- 4:30PM – 5:30PM

Cape Quarter Mall

72 Waterkant Street, Cape Town Central 8005

Experience Cape-style boutique shopping and eating at Cape Quarter Mall, an upper-end shopping center in the historic De Waterkant district. With over 100 retail stores and restaurants, this vibrant lifestyle village houses some of the most exclusive interior and fashion stores, including both international and local labels. Art galleries, clothing shops, grocery stores, and distinct dining are complemented by health and beauty salons, handcrafted design shops, and jewelers. Check out the free weekly yoga classes.

- 10:00AM – 10:30AM

Groote Kerk

43 Adderley St, Cape Town City Centre

The Groote Kerk is a Dutch Reformed church in Cape Town, South Africa. The church is South Africa's oldest place of worship, built by Herman Schuette in 1841. The first church on this land was built in 1678. Willem Adriaan van der Stel laid the cornerstone for the church. It was replaced by the present building in 1841, but the original tower was retained. The pulpit is the work of Anton Anreith and the carpenter Jacob Graaff, and was inaugurated on 29 November 1789. The Groote Kerk lays claim to housing South Africa's largest organ, which was installed in 1954 and has 5917 pipes.

- 11:00AM – 2:00PM

Camp's Bay Beach

63 Victoria Rd, Camps Bay

It's all about relaxation at Camp's Bay Beach, overlooked by Table Mountain and fringed with palm trees. As you roam the sandy shore, you'll encounter a plethora of bars and restaurants lining the coast, while the grassy dunes provide plenty of space for picnics with friends and family. If you plan to swim in the Atlantic, be prepared for very chilly waters, even during the summer.

Day 5, Tuesday 30 January 2018 (Continued)

- 2:30PM – 4:00PM

Uwe Koetter

Cape Quarter Lifestyle Village the Square | 27 Somerset Road, Green Point, Cape Town Central 8001

Find the perfect diamond ring or bespoke necklace at Uwe Koetter, a renowned Cape Town jeweler offering a variety of pieces. Known for its exquisite wedding rings, the store has created unique design features and custom-made jewelry for customers from all walks of life. Established in 1968, the award-winning store offers certified gemstones and diamonds built into handmade pieces. VAT refunds are available to foreign tourists, and staff members speak English, German, Italian, and French.
